LOGAN JOINS THE ARC OF INDIANA AS THE ST. JOSEPH COUNTY LOCAL CHAPTER

South Bend, IN - LOGAN Community Resources, Inc. is pleased to announce joining The Arc of Indiana and The Arc of the United States as the local chapter in St. Joseph County. This announcement brings the number of local chapters in Indiana to 43, extending the education, advocacy, and support provided by The Arc.

Kim Dodson, The Arc of Indiana CEO, said, “For decades, LOGAN has been an established organization in their community known for providing high-quality services to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) and their families. We are excited to bring LOGAN into The Arc family and continue to work together in creating opportunities for Hoosiers with IDD. Their addition grows our statewide footprint of organizations that embrace The Arc’s values, guiding principles and mission and provides new opportunities for families seeking quality services and resources.”

“LOGAN is honored to become an affiliated chapter of The Arc,” says Matt Harrington, President and CEO, LOGAN Community Resources, Inc. “For 72 years, LOGAN has been a champion for our disability community. We look forward to continuing that success by joining with The Arc of Indiana in advocacy and education as we work together to bring positive change to societal perceptions and influence policy to benefit people with disabilities.”

With over 30,000 members and 43 chapters in Indiana and nearly 145,000 members in over 600 state and local chapters nationwide, the combined strength of The Arc at the local, state, and national level makes The Arc the largest national community-based organization advocating for and serving people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families.

LOGAN Community Resources, Inc., based in South Bend, Indiana, is a not-for-profit organization offering resources and opportunities to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities so they, and their families, may achieve their desired quality of life. Since 1950, LOGAN has reached out to friends and families with help and hope through advocacy, resources, and services.
